Wofford Beats Tough Louisiana-Lafayette Squad, 74-71 Nov. 16, 2001

The Lady Terriers opened their season on a high note with a 74-71 win today against the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

The teams fought through an exciting first half, in which first Wofford, then the Ragin' Cajuns jumped out ahead. The Lady Terriers took the largest lead of the half, holding a 21-15 edge with 12:45 remaining in the period, but a three-pointer by Charlotte Green cut the lead to three, and Louisiana-Lafayette tied the score a few plays later at 24-24. The Ragin' Cajuns took a slight lead, edging Wofford by as much as four points, but could not hold the advantage, and the teams went into the locker room deadlocked, 37-37, at the half.

After the break, the score see-sawed again, as there were no fewer than five ties in the first six minutes, the last a 48-48 deadlock with 14:24 remaining. From the Lady Terriers looked to take control, taking a pair of six-point leads at 56-50 and 58-52. The Ragin' Cajuns again battled back, tying the score at 61 and again at 63. Wofford surged ahead again, as Nancy Dubuisson scored six points in a span of 2:46 to give Wofford an eight-point lead, its largest of the game. Louisiana-Lafayette attempted one final comeback, and cut the lead to three after a pair of made free throws by Green with 38 seconds remaining. They were unable to complete the comeback, though, and Wofford finished the game with the 74-71 lead.

"I thought it was a team victory," said Lady Terrier Head Coach David Graves. "It came down to showing a lot of grit and making plays down the stretch. We took care of the ball better than we have in the past. Jenny Nett had an extremely good game. Pheobe Clark and Nancy Dubuisson were also very solid down the stretch."

Nett and Dubuisson both had double-doubles to lead Wofford; Nett finished with a game-high 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Dubuisson had 14 points and a game-high 11 rebounds.

Green had a double-double of 15 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Ragin' Cajuns. She was joined in double-digit scoring by Sarah Richey, Brooke Williams, and DeLesha Qualls, each of whom came up with 13 points. Richey also added an impressive three blocks on the evening.

Wofford wins its season-opener for the first time since 1999. The Lady Terriers and the Ragin' Cajuns will face off again this season; they have a rematch scheduled for Dec. 16 in Lafayette.

Wofford Defeats Tennessee Wesleyan, 74-36 Nov. 20, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – The Lady Terriers moved to 3-0 to start the season with a 74-36 win over Tennessee Wesleyan (2-2) Tuesday night. This is Wofford's first 3-0 start since 1992.

Freshman Ricaye Harris led all scorers with 13 points, adding five rebounds and a game-high five assists. Senior Jenny Nett added 11 points, while freshman Stephanie Ripberger had nine points and a game-high eight rebounds for the Lady Terriers.

For the Lady Bulldogs, Niki Dixon came up with 10 points. Nancy Scott added six rebounds, while Amelia Conaway had three blocks in the losing effort.

The issue was never really in doubt as Wofford took a 1-0 lead at 18:27 in the first half and never trailed. The Lady Terriers built a 36-15 advantage at the break, then outscored Tennessee Wesleyan 38-21 in the second period.

Wofford shot 43.5% on the night, while the Lady Bulldogs shot 25%.

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Seven Lady Terriers scored in double digits and Cathey Franks had a double-double of 12 points and 11 rebounds as Wofford took a convincing 102-43 victory over neighboring Limestone Friday night in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the win, the Lady Terriers improved to 6-2 on the season. It was just the second loss of the season for the Lady Saints, who maintain a 5-2 record. It was the largest margin of victory for Wofford since winning 102-43 against Davidson in the 1984-85 season. It also marked the Lady Terriers' first 100-point game since defeating Eastern Kentucky 100-84 in the season-opener of the 1999-00 season.

Limestone opened the scoring for the game with a jumper by Tierney Pugh. It was the only lead the Lady Saints would hold, though, as Wofford scored the next nine points and never looked back, building a 48-19 halftime lead.

Wofford set a school single-game record for assists with 30, led by seven from freshman guard Ricaye Harris. Freshman Stephanie Ripberger chipped in six, while Natalie Walsh and Jessica Ridgill each had four.

Jenny Nett led all scorers with 21 points, despite playing just 17 minutes in the game. Harris and Nancy Dubuisson each added 12 point and five rebounds. They were also joined in double digit scoring by Ripberger, Walsh, and Stephanie Adelaine, each of whom had 10 points. Pheobe Clark, the Southern Conference's leading blocker, blocked six shots in the game, while Adelaine had a season-high three blocks.

The Lady Saints were led by Elizabeth Santiago, who had fifteen points in the contest. Brenda Wofford came up with 11 in the effort.

Wofford next takes a road swing through Louisiana, as it faces UL-Lafayette on Sunday at 2 p.m. EST before taking on the University of New Orleans on Tuesday at 5 p.m.

Wofford Wins League Opener Dec. 1, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Jenny Nett had a career-high 34 points as the Lady Terriers defeated Southern Conference rival College of Charleston, 82-67, Saturday night in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the win, Wofford moved to 5-0 on the season, tying the program's best start ever. The Lady Terriers also moved to 1-0 in SoCon play. The Cougars fell to 4-2, 0-2.

Wofford jumped out to a 4-0 lead to start the game and never trailed, steadily building to a fifteen-point edge, 46-31, at the half. This included an impressive 21-point first-half performance by Nett.

The Lady Terriers made a 12-0 run to start the second half to lead by 27, 58-31. Wofford would maintain this lead to the 7:39 mark, when it led, 71-44. The College of Charleston mounted a strong comeback effort, making a 15-1 run to cut the lead to just 13; however, the Cougars would get no closer, and Wofford ended the game with a 15-point edge.

Nett gathered her game-high scoring total by going four-of-five from behind the arc three-point shooting and eight-of-eight on the charity stripe. She also added five rebounds and six steals to the Lady Terrier victory. Point guard Natalie Walsh also scored in double digits with 12 points and four assists.

Stephanie Adelaine gathered nine points and five rebounds for Wofford, while Pheobe Clark had a game-high seven rebounds, as well as five points and two blocks.

The Cougars were led by Patrice Bryant, who came up with 13 points, four rebounds, and three steals. Becky Wollenberg contributed 12 points to the College of Charleston total.

The Southern Conference announced Monday that Wofford senior Jenny Nett has earned the Women's Basketball Player of the Week honors for games played through December 2.

A guard from Louisville, Ky., Nett led the Lady Terriers in scoring with a career-high 34 points against College of Charleston on December 1. She recorded 26 points in the season-opener against Louisiana-Lafayette, leading Wofford to a 74-71 win. Nett has recorded double-digit scoring in all five of the Lady Terrier's wins and is averaging a league-high 20.4 points per game while pulling down an average of six rebounds per game. She is second in the league from the free throw line, shooting 84-percent (21-25).

Wofford opened the regular season 5-0 for the first time since 1992-93, tying the program's best start ever.

Wofford College women's basketball standout Jenny Nett has been named the SoCon Player of the Week for the second time this season.

Nett averaged 22.5 points and 6.0 rebounds in two games as the Lady Terriers routed Limestone 102-43 and dropped a 75-72 overtime decision at Louisiana-Lafayette. She shot 56.7 percent (17-of-30) from the field in those contests, including 6-of-10 (60.0 percent) from 3-point range.

A senior from Louisville, Ky., Nett had 21 points and four rebounds in just 17 minutes against Limestone as the Lady Terriers posted their largest margin of victory since a 102-43 win over Davidson in the 1984-85 campaign. It was also Wofford's highest point total since a 106-point effort versus Morris in the 1988-89 season opener.

Nett had team-high totals of 24 points and eight boards in Sunday's overtime loss to the Ragin' Cajuns.

Nett, a three-time All-SoCon selection, tops the league in scoring this season with a 19.8 points per game average. She's also third in free-throw percentage at 85.4 (35-of-41).

Lady Terriers Take Down UNC Wilmington Nov. 27, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Stephanie Ripberger scored 16 points and Pheobe Clark had seven blocks as Wofford improved to 4-0 with a 74-54 win over UNC Wilmington Tuesday evening.

The Lady Terriers and the Seahawks battled through a scrappy and even first half. UNC Wilmington took a five-point lead early, leading 7-2 at 18:06. The Seahawks could not hold the advantage, as the half saw a total of eight lead changes. Wofford would go into the locker room with a two-point lead, 29-27.

After halftime, it looked to be more of the same, as the score was tied twice and UNC Wilmington's Jeri Lynn Coker made a three-pointer to put the Seahawks up, 39-38, with 13:37 remaining. From that point, though, the Lady Terriers went on a 21-6 run to jump out to a 14-point advantage.

Ripberger shot four-of-six from behind the arc to lead the game in scoring. Clark's seven rebounds were a career-high for the senior; she also added eight points and four rebounds. Jenny Nett and Jessica Ridgill each gathered 14 points for the Lady Terriers. Nett also contributed three steals and seven rebounds, while Ridgill had nine assists. Nancy Dubuisson also finished in double digits with 11 points and six rebounds.

Shameka Montgomery led the Seahawks with 14 points while pulling down seven boards. Rachael Friesen-Norwood and Jennifer Kapper contributed 11 and 10 points, respectively.

With the win, Wofford moves to 4-0 for the first time since the 5-0 start of the 1992-93 season. UNC Wilmington falls to 1-2. The game also marked the first-ever victory for the Lady Terriers over the Seahawks, who lead the series, 3-1.

Wofford will kick off its conference season with a 7 p.m. game at home on Saturday against the College of Charleston. UNC Wilmington continues its campaign with a 7 p.m. home game Saturday against Coastal Carolina.

CULLOWHEE, N.C. -- Jenny Nett scored a Wofford single-game record 38 points as the Lady Terriers defeated Southern Conference rival Western Carolina, 97-88, in WCU's Ramsey Center.

With the win, Wofford improves to 8-4 on the season and 2-1 in SoCon play. The Lady Catamounts fall to 8-3, 1-2.

Wofford took its first lead, 6-4, on a Cathey Franks layup at the 19:06 mark of the first half. It was a lead Wofford would never relinquish, as Nett scored 18 and Ricaye Harris added 13 before the break. The Lady Terriers brought an 11 point advantage, 47-36, into the half.

In the second period, Wofford stretched its lead to as much as 18 with 2:53 remaining. Western Carolina's Laura Echols led a comeback to close the gap to just six, but the Lady Terriers held on for the victory.

Nett's 38 came on 12-of-19 shooting, including a 5-of-8 mark from behind the arc. Her game set the record for the most points scored by any player in Western Carolina's Ramsey Center. It also tied Wofford's single-game scoring record, set by Libby Corry against Gardner-Webb in the 1994-95 season. Harris contributed 20 points, going 4-of-6 from behind the 3-point line, as well as adding three assists and three steals. Natalie Walsh had 11 points and four steals.

Echols led the Lady Catamounts with 29 points and 11 rebounds. Yoneko Allen added 14 points, and Tiffany Hamm had 13, while Miranda Long chipped in 10.

The Lady Terriers take a break until January 5th, when they travel to UNC Greensboro for a 3 p.m. contest.

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Jenny Nett had 26 points to lead Wofford to a 75-71 overtime victory against the Lady Paladins of Furman in Southern Conference action Tuesday night.

With the win, Wofford improves to 9-5 on the season, and 3-2 in league play. Furman falls to 6-7, 1-3.

Despite trailing by nine at halftime of the contest, Wofford had control late in the game, leading by as much as six late in the second half. Furman kept it close, cutting the lead with a three-pointer and pair of free throws by Monica Pope. With the score 63-60 at the 13-second mark, the Lady Paladins' Kim Lawrence came up with a big three to tie the score. Wofford had a chance to end the game in regulation, but a missed final shot sent the game into overtime tied at 63.

Furman's Orion Wake notched the first score of the extra period, hitting a layup for the edge. However, Nett would respond with a three-pointer to give Wofford a lead it would not relinquish. Natalie Walsh extended the lead to four with a three-pointer. The Lady Paladins had a chance to win or send the game to a second overtime when a Wofford charge gave them the ball and a two-point deficit with 30 seconds remaining. Their last attempt, a jumper at the seven-second mark, missed, and Ricaye Harris got a fast break layup to finish the game.

Wofford had fallen behind, 38-29, by the end of the first period. The Lady Terriers were able to cut the lead to one twice. Then, trailing by three at the 9:37 mark, Nett made a layup and was fouled, giving her a free throw to tie the score at 48-48. Then, at the 8:41 mark, she made a three-pointer to give the Lady Terriers their first lead since early in the first half.

Nett's 26 points marked her eighth 20+ point scoring game this year. She now is just 21 points short of becoming Wofford's all-time scoring leader. She also had three three-pointers on the night, and is just two shy of the Wofford record in that category.

Walsh extended her double-digit scoring streak to four games, notching fifteen points and adding five rebounds on the night. Nancy Dubuisson had ten points, and Pheobe Clark came up with six points and nine rebounds.

Wake led Furman with 20 points and 12 rebounds, her fourth double-double of the year. Pope had 11 points and four assists for Furman, while Deshara Shealey added 10 points, five assists and six rebounds. Mary Brock had 10 points and five rebounds on the evening.

Wofford next travels to Davidson for a 3 p.m. game this Saturday. Furman also plays Saturday, hosting Chattanooga at 6:30 p.m.

Records Fall as Wofford Downs Wildcats Jan. 12, 2001

DAVIDSON, N.C. -- Jenny Nett and Natalie Walsh combined for 62 points as the Lady Terriers downed the Davidson Wildcats 97-74 in Southern Conference women's basketball action Saturday afternoon at Belk Arena before a crowd of 478 fans.

Davidson (5-8, 3-2) was led by sophomore center Meghan Bryant with 19 points while Nett had 33 points to lead Wofford (10-5, 4-2) in scoring.

The Wildcats jumped out to an 8-1 lead with 17:21 to play in the half behind six points from Bryant. Wofford answered back and took a 14-12 lead on a Nett three-point basket, but Robyn Flewelling tied the score, 14-14, with 15:08 to play in the half.

Davidson's Janna Magette put the 'Cats ahead for the final time in the game, 16-14, on a jump shot with 14:30 to play. A jumper from freshman Emily Callahan cut the lead to two points, 25-23, with 11:33 to go in the half.

The Lady Terriers ended the half on a 24-8 run, and were leading at the break, 49-31.

The second half was much of the same for Davidson. A pair of Magette free throws with 14:07 on the clock cut the lead back to 13 points, 60-47, but that would be as close as the 'Cats would get. Wofford continued to put the points on the board including 11 straight points from Walsh.

Davidson shot 39.2% (29-74) for the game while Wofford connected on 42.6% (29-68) of its shots. The Lady Terriers made 27-of-34 (79.4%) free throws compared to 13-of-21 (61.9%) for the Wildcats.

Davidson held the turnover edge committing just 12 while forcing Wofford to make 14. The Terriers held a 53-41 edge in rebounding and connected on 12-of-23 (52.2%) three-point attempts.

With her 33 points on the afternoon Nett became the career scoring leader in Wofford women's basketball history. She now has 1,596 points in her career. Walsh set a school record with her seven three-point baskets in the game, while the 12 threes made by the Lady Terriers tied a school mark.

Lady Mocs Stifle Wofford Jan. 19, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Katie Galloway made three-of-three three pointers en route to a 13-point second half performance to lead Chattanooga over Wofford, 78-43, Saturday night in Southern Conference women's basketball action.

With the win, the Lady Mocs improve to 5-3 in SoCon play (10-6 overall). Wofford falls to 5-3 in the league (11-6 overall).

Smothering defense was the key for Chattanooga as the Lady Mocs went on a 5-0 run to start the game, and held Wofford to just 12 points in the first half. Chattanooga led, 33-12, at the break.

Wofford went on a 9-2 run to start the second half, closing the game to just 14 points, but the Lady Mocs responded with a 20-2 run of their own to regain control.

Chattanooga outshot Wofford 47.5 percent to 32.1 percent on the game. The Lady Mocs also made a season-high 61.5 percent of their three-point attempts, totaling 8-of-13 for the night. They also held a 44-31 edge in rebounds.

Galloway's 13 points led all players on the night. She was supported by Tiffany Patton, who notched 12 points and seven boards. Miranda Warfield also scored in double digits, scoring 11 points and adding three steals and five rebounds. Shamya Sermons had a game-high eight rebounds.

Wofford was led by Nancy Dubuisson, who had 10 points on the night. Pheobe Clark chipped in eight points, four rebounds, two blocks and two steals.

Wofford next plays on Monday night, when it hosts Georgia Southern at 7 p.m. in the Benjamin Johnson Arena. Chattanooga also plays Monday, when it travels to Appalachian State for a 5:15 p.m. tipoff.

Georgia Southern Holds off Lady Terriers Jan. 21, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Four players scored in double digits for Georgia Southern as the Lady Eagles downed Wofford, 80-63, Monday night in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Georgia Southern built a second-half lead as large as 20, 63-43 with 8:35 remaining in the game. The Lady Terriers responded, cutting the lead to just nine points on three occasions, the last at 1:58. A game-ending burst, including five points from Shawnica Hill, saved the solid win for the Lady Eagles.

Wofford owned an early 8-4 lead in the game, but Georgia Southern rebounded to take a 10-8 edge at the 14:15 mark on a jumper by Sarah Davis. From that point on, the Lady Eagles would not trail. They took a 34-25 lead into halftime.

Georgia Southern shot 44.1 percent on the night to Wofford's 40.4 percent. The teams were even in rebounding, each with 39 boards.

Danna Simpson had 15 points and three assists on the night for Georgia Southern. With her second assist, she became the Lady Eagles' all-time leader in assists. She now has 376, surpassing Rosie Arnold's record of 374 set in 1999. Alie Rousseau and Sarah Davis each had a team-high 16 points for Georgia Southern, while Davis added 13. Jessica Everett chipped in five points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

Natalie Walsh had a game-high 24 points for Wofford, including five-of-ten three-point shooting. Jenny Nett and Nancy Dubuisson each contributed 10 points.

Georgia Southern will continue its two-game road swing, next facing Chattanooga on Jan. 26 at 7 p.m. Wofford will take to the road to face East Tennessee State on Jan. 26 at 2 p.m.

JOHNSON CITY, TENN. -- The East Tennessee State Lady Bucs held off a second half rally by Wofford by closing the game on a 17-7 run to defeat the Lady Terriers, 78-67, Saturday afternoon from Memorial Center.

East Tennessee State led the game 39-27 at the half. The Lady Bucs had led by just one, 14-13, with 11:12 remaining in the first stanza. Over the next four minutes, however, they went on a 14-2 run to take a 28-15 lead with 5:54 remaining in the half.

The Lady Bucs ran their lead to a game-high 16 points, 47-31, with 16:37 remaining in the game after a Misty Copas layup. From that point, Wofford went on a 22-7 run to cut the lead to just one, 54-53, with 9:08 left in the game. The game would then go back and forth with the Lady Terriers cutting the ETSU lead to as few as one on three occasions late in the game, but they could never wrestle the lead away from ETSU.

The Lady Terriers last cut the lead to one for the final time, 61-60, after a Natalie Walsh three-pointer with 5:34 remaining. From there, the Lady Bucs would close the game by scoring 17 of the last 24 points. Guard Ashley Reed led ETSU during that stretch, scoring seven points in the final 3:05 of the game.

Wofford was led by senior guard Jenny Nett, who had a solid all-around game with 16 points, six rebounds, five assists and four steals. Senior forward Cathay Franks recorded her second double-double of the season with 12 points and 15 rebounds. Freshman guard Ricaye Harris also scored in double-digits for the Lady Terriers, scoring 10 points and adding four steals.

Copas led ETSU with a season-high 19 points on 8-10 shooting. She came within one point of her career-high in points that she set when she tallied 20 points against Western Carolina on Feb. 17, 2001. Lady Buc sophomore forward Lauren Trantham scored 12 points and added 15 rebounds for her sixth double-double of the season. Reed also scored in double-digits for ETSU, tallying 14 points in the win. Reed also tied for the game-high with five assists.

With the win, ETSU snaps a seven-game losing streak and runs their record to 8-11, 3-7 in Southern Conference play. Wofford falls to 11-8, 5-5 in conference play.

Wofford continues their road trip, playing College of Charleston Monday night at 7 p.m. The Lady Bucs also return to action on Monday night at 7 p.m. as they travel to Chattanooga.

UNC Greensboro Escapes Lady Terriers in SoCon Thriller Feb. 5, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Brianne Dodgen made a three-pointer with 1:56 remaining to put the Spartans up for good in Tuesday night's Southern Conference match between Wofford and UNC Greensboro. The Spartans won the contest, 67-61, in regulation.

With the win, UNC Greensboro maintains its top position in the SoCon at 11-1 (16-5 overall). Wofford falls to 7-6 and a tie for third place (13-9 overall).

The Spartans owned a lead as large as 23 points in the first half and looked likely to run away with the victory. They scored first on a Dodgen jump shot and led for the half, going on runs of six, 13, and eight points en route to their 23-point advantage. The final big run was an 8-0 flurry capped by a Jennifer Hart layup with 2:55 remaining, which gave UNC Greensboro a 41-18. Two Wofford three-pointers from Natalie Walsh and a jumper by Pheobe Clark cut the lead to 41-26 at the half.

After the break, the teams fought back and forth, and two Jacinda Lambert layups gave the Spartans an 18-point edge with 16:58 to play. From there, treys by Walsh and Jenny Nett would spur Wofford on a 16-2 run to cut the lead to just four at 10:04. The Lady terriers managed to tie the score at 57 all on a Nett layup with 6:19 remaining, and actually took the lead with 5:31 left to play on a Cathey Franks jumper. Hart cut Wofford's lead in half with a made free throw, and Dodgen's three-pointer regained the lead for UNC Greensboro.

The Spartans shot 46.4 percent on the game, including an impressive 60 percent in the first half. Wofford made 41.4 percent of its shots. UNC Greensboro outrebounded the Lady Terriers, 43-27, but turned the ball over 17 times to Wofford's 13.

Wofford's Nett led all players on the night with 28 points, while Walsh chipped in five treys for 15 points. Pheobe Clark had a near double-double of 10 points and nine rebounds for the Lady Terriers. Jessica Ridgill chipped in eight assists.

Dodgen had a double-double of 19 points and 10 rebounds for UNC Greensboro. Samika Foster added ten points and six assists on the night. Nicole Murray tallied nine points, eight rebounds, and four assists in the winning effort.

Wofford will rest until Saturday, when it travels down I-85 to face Furman for a 3 p.m. contest. UNC Greensboro will host Chattanooga in the SoCon's battle of #1 and #2, also at 3 p.m. on Saturday.

Lady Terriers Outlast Western Carolina Feb. 2, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Senior Jenny Nett had 26 points as Wofford defeated the Lady Catamounts of Western Carolina, 77-62, in Southern Conference play Saturday afternoon in the Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the win, Wofford improved to 13-8 overall and 7-5 in the SoCon, while the Lady Catamounts fell to 13-8, 5-7 SoCon. The seven league wins are the most Wofford has had since joining the SoCon in the 1997-98 season. The 13 overall wins are their best as a Division I program.

The first half was a hard-fought affair in which the lead changed hands no fewer than 11 times. Western Carolina earned a four-point lead, 12-8 at the 12:23 mark. However, the Lady Terriers went on an 11-0 run over the next 3:17 to lead by seven. The teams exchanged leads repeatedly over the last five minutes, and Wofford went into halftime with a 35-34 edge. Nett racked up 16 points in the first half for the Lady Terriers, and Jennifer Gardner had 10 for Western Carolina.

After the break, Gardner made two free throws and Laura Echols converted a layup to give the Lady Cats a three-point edge with 18:34 remaining. Nett quickly responded with a trey to tie the game, and a Cathey Franks layup with 17:57 remaining gave Wofford a lead it would not relinquish. Western Carolina kept it close for most of the period, and trailed by just two, 53-51, with 6:39 remaining. From there, though, the Lady Terriers went on a 16-5 run to stretch their advantage to 13. They went up as much as 17 with 15 seconds remaining before two Lady Catamount free throws by Yoneko Allen closed the scoring.

Wofford shot 42.6 percent on the game, including an even 50 percent in the second half. Western Carolina averaged 38.9 percent. The Lady Terriers held the edge in turnovers, giving the ball up 16 times to the Lady Cats' 25. Western Carolina grabbed more rebounds, though, getting 43 boards to Wofford's 31.

Nett's 26 led all scorers on the game, and she added four assists and two steals in the win. Freshman Ricaye Harris added 16 points and three assists, while Nancy Dubuisson had a season-high 15 points and three steals. Pheobe Clark came up with a team-high eight rebounds and three blocks.

The Lady Cats were led by Echols, who had 20 points and eight boards on the afternoon. Gardner finished with a double-double of 17 points and 10 rebounds. Janetta Heggins contributed a game-high six assists for Western Carolina.

Western Carolina next plays at noon on Monday, when it hosts Southern Conference rival Chattanooga. Wofford will remain at home for a Tuesday 7 p.m. matchup with league leader UNC Greensboro.

Wofford Handles Wildcats

Feb. 11, 2001

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Jenny Nett scored 20 points to lead the Lady Terriers as they downed Davidson, 77-53, in Southern Conference action Monday night.

With the win, Wofford improved to 8-6 on the SoCon season and 14-10 overall. Davidson fell to 4-10 in league play and 4-10 overall.

Davidson opened the game with a pair of two-point leads on field goals by Meghan Bryant. However, at the 17:10 mark, a Nett free throw would give Wofford a one-point lead that it would not relinquish. The Lady Terriers built their first-half advantage to as much as 15 points on a free throw by Ricaye Harris with 4:16 to play, before going into halftime with a 13 point edge.

The Wildcats cut their deficit to 10 with 15:41 remaining in the game; however, Wofford would go on an 8-0 run to quell Davidson's comeback hopes.

Wofford shot 44.8 percent to the Wildcats' 27.3 percent on the evening. The Lady Terriers outrebounded Davidson, 45-39.

Nett added six rebounds and three steals to her 20 points on the evening. Nancy Dubuisson had a near double-double of 11 points and nine rebounds on the night. Pheobe Clark was also in double digits with 10 points, eight rebounds, four blocks and three steals.

Ashley Hallsted and Bethany Schott shared scoring honors for Davidson, each logging 13 points. Hallsted's total included an impressive seven-of-seven from the charity stripe. Bryant had nine points and a game-high 11 rebounds in the outing.

SPARTANBURG, S.C. -- Jenny Nett and Natalie Walsh combined for 59 points to lead the Lady Terriers Saturday night as they toppled Appalachian State, 93-83, in Southern Conference action in Wofford's Benjamin Johnson Arena.

With the win, Wofford improved to 9-7 on the SoCon season and 15-10 overall. The Mountaineers fell to 5-11 in league play and 9-16 overall.

The score was tied, 4-4, at the 15:50 mark in the first period. The Lady Terriers then went on a 19-3 tear to lead, 23-7, with just under ten minutes remaining in the half. Appalachian State fought back, and a three-pointer by Aisha Bryant cut the lead to just six at the 4:38 mark. Wofford would lead by seven, 41-34, at the half.

The Mountaineers fought back early in the second half, closing Wofford's lead to just four points on three occasions, the last at 53-49. However, a Lady Terrier offensive explosion reopened the game. A three-pointer from Nett and following layup from Ricaye Harris gave Wofford an 82-63 lead, its largest of the game. Appalachian State fought to within eight in the final thirty seconds, but was unable to complete the comeback as the Lady Terriers took the ten-point win.

Wofford shot 57.1 percent from behind the arc, as Nett and Walsh each made four treys. The Lady Terriers edged Appalachian State in rebounds, 45-31. The teams combined for 57 fouls on the evening.

Nett led all players with 37 points, just one off of her career high. Walsh had 22 points on the night. Nancy Dubuisson, who had six points and six rebounds, became the ninth Lady Terrier to hit the 1,000 point mark in her career.

The Lady Terriers will hit the road for their final two games. They travel to Chattanooga for a 5 p.m. game on Monday, then face Georgia Southern next Saturday at 5 p.m. in Statesboro. The Mountaineers next host Western Carolina on Tuesday night at 7 p.m.

ASHEVILLE, N.C. -- The Southern Conference announced today that Wofford senior Jenny Nett has earned the Women's Basketball Player of the Week honors for February 19. This is Nett's third player of the week recognition in the 2001-02 season, as she previously earned the honors for the weeks of December 3 and Dec. 17.

A guard from Louisville, Ky., Nett led the Lady Terriers to a 1-1 record last week. She started the week with 37 points, one off her career-high, and six rebounds in a 93-83 win over Appalachian State on Feb. 16. She shot 57.1 percent (12-of-21) from the floor, including 4-of-6 from three-point range and was nine-of-10 from the charity stripe. Net followed that performance with 26 points and four rebounds in the Lady Terriers' 78-67 loss at Chattanooga on Feb. 18. She was 11-of-24 (45.8 percent) from the floor and hit a pair of free throws.

On the week, Nett averaged 31.5 points per game on 51.1 percent (23-45) shooting, including 40 percent (six-of-15) from three-point range. She was also 11-of-13 (84.6 percent) from the free throw line and picked up three assists on the week.

Nett leads the SoCon in scoring, with 21.0 points per game (24.4 ppg in league play). She also ranks in the top 15 nationally in scoring.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY, VA. -- Wofford's Jenny Nett has been selected to the 2001 Verizon Academic All-America District III Women's Basketball University Division First Team. This honor is voted on by members of CoSIDA, the College Sports Information Directors of America.

This marks the second consecutive Verizon Academic All-District honor for the senior guard from Louisville, Ky., who was named to the second team in 2000-01. Nett sports a 3.94 GPA in Business Economics and English, and is Wofford's leading scorer, averaging 21.2 points per game and 5.5 rebounds. She is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa national honor fraternity and a recipient of Wofford's Richardson Scholarship, a full scholarship given to just one student in each academic class.

District III is made up of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Virginia. The First Team includes two Southern Conference athletes in Nett and Western Carolina's Laura Echols, as well as Kristine Austgulen of Virginia Commonwealth, Sarah Hicks of Virginia Tech, and Allyson Keener of James Madison.

The second team includes Western Carolina's Yoneko Allen and Georgia Southern's Danna Simpson, as well as Hampton's LaShondra Allen, Florida Atlantic's Kristy Halvorsen, and Georgia Tech's Regina Tate.

Nett Named Academic All-American
Mar. 8, 2001

Wofford's Jenny Nett has been selected to the 2001 Verizon Academic All-America Women's Basketball University Division First Team. This honor is the premier national recognition for a student-athlete. The All-District recognition is voted on by members of CoSIDA, the College Sports Information Directors of America, and the All-America team is chosen by a selection committee.

This marks the first All-America honor for the senior, who has been named to the Academic All-District III team twice in her career. A guard from Louisville, Ky., Nett sports a 3.94 GPA in Business Economics and English, and was named Southern Conference Player of the Year for 2001-02. She finished the season ranked 14th nationally in scoring, averaging 21.1 points per game and 5.5 rebounds. She is also a member of the Phi Beta Kappa national honor fraternity and a recipient of Wofford's Richardson Scholarship, a full scholarship given to just one student in each academic class.

Nett owns the Wofford records for career scoring (1,896 points, avg. 17.1 ppg), points in a season (613 this year), and points in a game (38, Dec. 30 vs. Western Carolina), and places on the top ten lists in all-time rebounding, assists, and steals. Last week, she led her team to its first ever appearance in the semifinals of the SoCon Tournament and an overtime game with eventual champion Chattanooga.

Due to a tie in voting, Nett is one of six student-athletes on the first team. She is joined by Virginia Commonwealth's Kristine Austgulen, UNLV's Linda Frohlich, Iowa's Lindsey Meder, Kent State's Kate Miller, and Academic All-American of the Year Stacey Dales (Oklahoma).

Sasso Signs with Lady Terriers
Apr. 16, 2001

Becky Sasso, a 6'1" post player from Atlanta, Ga. (St. Pius High School) has signed to become a student-athlete on Wofford's women's basketball team next fall.

Sasso, a four-year varsity player at St. Pius, was a first-team All-Dekalb County and honorable mention All-State performer. As a senior, she helped lead her team to a 27-4 record, the regional championship, and a fifth-place finish in the state. She was twice named Atlanta Journal-Constitution Player of the Week during her senior year.

Sasso averaged 12 points and eight rebounds per game during her high school career. She was named to the All-Tournament team at the Serra-St. Pius Christmas Tournament, and earned honorable mention All-County honors as a sophomore. She was sidelined by a torn ACL during her junior year, but bounced back to full strength during her senior season.

"I was impressed by the welcoming atmosphere when I visited Wofford as well as the attitude of the girls on the team and the people I met on campus," Sasso said. "That was a major factor in my decision."

Sasso will join early signee Jaclyn Hall as a part of Wofford's class of 2006.

Subject: Wofford Names Wyant Head Women's Basketball Coach
Date: April 17, 2002 at 12:31 PM
To: Mark Cohen cohenm@wofford.edu

The Wofford College Athletic Department has announced the hiring of Ed Wyant as head women's basketball coach.

Wyant has served the last seven years as an assistant coach with the University of New Mexico women's basketball team. His players, who completed their eligibility at UNM, had a 100 percent graduation rate throughout his tenure and posted a 3.26 team GPA this year.

Prior to Wyant's arrival at New Mexico, the Lady Lobos had won only 14 games in the previous five years. In his first season at UNM with Head Coach Don Flanagan, the Lady Lobos won 14 games while inheriting the same starting five from the previous season. During his seven years in Albuquerque, the Lady Lobos advanced to two NCAA Tournaments and made a pair of WNIT appearances. This year's squad posted a 22-9 record and earned its second NCAA berth in the last five years. The 1997-98 team became the first in school history to win a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) title and reach the NCAA Tournament. The 2000-01 team advanced to the WNIT championship game.

"We couldn't be more excited and pleased to have someone like Ed Wyant join our staff," Wofford Athletic Director Richard Johnson said. "Ed brings a high level of maturity, professionalism, and success to our women's team.

"Ed is simply a perfect fit for Wofford. He is a teacher and understands the importance of academics. In addition to the obvious achievements on the court, the University of New Mexico women's basketball program has also been very impressive in the classroom. We look forward to Ed making a very positive impact on not just our women's basketball team, but also the Wofford community as a whole."

A native of Pennsylvania and a 1983 graduate of East Stroudsburg University, Wyant has a total of 18 years of successful experience on the collegiate and high school levels. Prior to coming to the University of New Mexico, he was the head coach at Sandia High School in Albuquerque, where he turned around a program that went 7-16 the year before he arrived to one that went 86-37 in his five seasons. He was previously an assistant for six years under Flanagan at Eldorado High School in Albuquerque. He also compiled a 93-16 record as the junior varsity coach.

"I'm ecstatic about the opportunity to come to Wofford," Wyant said. "Wofford has a tremendous academic environment and excellent facilities to attract both top-notch students and highly skilled athletes.

"I'm looking forward to the challenge. I had a real good feel on my visit. There was a positive karma from a lot of different people."

Wyant has also been instrumental in the surge of interest in New Mexico women's basketball. Prior to his 1995 arrival on campus, the Lady Lobos had sold nine season tickets and averaged 151 fans per game. UNM had season ticket sales of 5,506 this year while its average attendance of 9,217 ranked fifth in the nation.

"Wofford is getting an outstanding coach, teacher, and person in Ed Wyant," University of New Mexico Senior Associate Athletic Director Bill McGillis said. "He has played a very important role in building a model program at the University of New Mexico and he is well prepared for this opportunity.

"Ed's primary concern will be that each and every student-athlete enjoys a wonderful educational experience, and I can assure you that the women's basketball program will bring great credit to the college. We will miss him immensely."

Wyant and his wife, Renee, are the parents of two sons: Gage, 8, and Brady, 4.

Mister Signs with Wofford
May 6, 2002

Nakia Mister, a 5-foot-10 forward from Irmo, S.C. (Dutch Fork High School), has signed with the Wofford College women's basketball team.

Mister, a four-year varsity player at Dutch Fork, was an All-Area and All-Region pick. She was also on the North Carolina/South All-Star Team, and was named WLTX's Player of the Week. She also competed on her high school's volleyball squad.

Mister averaged a double-double of 16 points and 10 rebounds per game as a senior.

"We are extremely pleased to have Nakia Mister join our Lady Terrier basketball family," said Lady Terrier Head Coach Ed Wyant. "Nakia is an outstanding student-athlete coming from a traditionally strong high school program at Dutch Fork, last year's state championship runner-up.

"We feel that Nakia will put forth the effort to develop into a fine collegiate player at Wofford College."

Mister is the third newcomer signed for next year's Lady Terrier squad. She will join early signee Jaclyn Hall (Plain City, Ohio) and Atlanta native Becky Sasso as a part of Wofford's freshman class.

"I decided to come to Wofford because they seemed to have a great coaching program, a good basketball program, the people were really nice, and the campus was beautiful," Mister said.

Mister hopes to study psychology and law while at Wofford. She is the daughter of Nina Mister and Lloyd Nelson. She has two siblings: Jayde and Julian Nelson, both age 10.

Pope Joins the Lady Terrier Staff
May 13, 2002

Debra Pope has been named an assistant women's basketball coach at Wofford College.

Pope comes to Wofford with a variety of teaching and coaching experience. Most recently, she served as the head basketball and volleyball coach and physical education teacher at Olympic High School in Charlotte, N.C. Previously, she served as a volunteer assistant coach at Winthrop.

Pope will assist in all aspects of the Lady Terrier program, including on-court coaching, recruiting, and administrative duties.

"We are fortunate to have such a multi-talented person as Deb Pope join our women's basketball staff at Wofford," said Head Coach Ed Wyant. "Deb brings experience as a player, coach, and administrator to our program. I was especially impressed during the interview process with her dynamic personality and her genuine belief in hard work."

Pope also had stints as an intern with the WNBA's Charlotte Sting and as a coach at Lynn University. She served as the head volleyball coach and assistant women's basketball coach at Lynn.

Pope competed in basketball for the University of Southern Indiana-Evansville. She served as team captain for the Screaming Eagles during her junior and senior years, and led the NCAA Division II in 3-point field goal percentage in the 1994-95 season. She is also the school's ninth-leading scorer and the all-time 3-point leader.

"I am thrilled with the opportunity to continue my coaching career at Wofford College, and am honored to be working alongside Ed Wyant," Pope said. "I feel the Wofford women's basketball program has a bright future and look forward to assisting Coach Wyant in taking the Lady Terrier program to the top of the Southern Conference."

Pope graduated from Southern Indiana in 1997. She earned her master's degree in sport and athletic administration from Lynn University in June 2000.

Bonner Signs with Lady Terriers
May 16, 2002

Meredith Bonner, a 6-foot-3 center from Albuquerque, N.M. (Temple Baptist Academy), has signed with the Wofford College women's basketball team.

Bonner was named to the 2001-02 All Metro Basketball Team, and was her team's MVP in both basketball and volleyball. She was a conference All-Tournament pick in 1999 and 2001, and was a NMAA 2A All-Star from 2000-02. She was also named the 2000-01 State Farm Insurance Albuquerque area Top Rebounder. She also competed on her high school's softball squad.

Bonner averaged a double-double of 14.1 points and 16 rebounds per game as a senior.

"We are quite pleased to have Meredith Bonner become a member of our Wofford Lady Terrier program," said Head Coach Ed Wyant. "I've been fortunate to watch Meredith progress first hand from us both living in Albuquerque. At this point, she has an immense amount of untapped talent. With dedication, she has the potential to develop into a fine player and a force in the Southern Conference."

Bonner is the third newcomer signed for next year's Lady Terrier squad, and the second to sign since Wyant took the helm. She will join Irmo, S.C., native Nakia Mister and Atlanta native Becky Sasso as a part of Wofford's freshman class.

Bonner hopes to study business and Spanish while at Wofford. She is the daughter of Joe and Lynn Bonner. She has one brother: Matthew, age 15.

Strong Signs with Lady Terriers
June 28, 2002

LaToya Strong, a 5-foot-7 guard from Annapolis, Md. (Archbishop Spalding), has signed with the Wofford College women's basketball team.

During her senior season, Strong was named Anne Arundel County Player of the Year by both the Washington Post and the Baltimore Sun. She was a first team All-Metro pick and was named to the Capital and Capital Gazette's first team. Strong was also on the IAAM A Conference All-Star Team and the Anne Arundel County Senior All Star Team. She earned numerous Player of the Week distinctions throughout her career and was also the C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Athletic Service Award winner.

Strong averaged 9.2 points, 4.7 rebounds, 2.5 steals, and three rebounds per game while at Archbishop Spalding.

"We are proud to have LaToya Strong as a part of the Wofford Lady Terrier basketball family," said Head Coach Ed Wyant. "She brings a great deal of athleticism, court savvy, and tenacious defense to our ball club. We are looking for LaToya to compete for playing time at the point guard position."

Strong is the fourth newcomer signed for next year's Lady Terrier squad. She will join Irmo native Nakia Mister, Atlanta native Becky Sasso, and Albuquerque, N.M., native Meredith Bonner as a part of Wofford's freshman class.

Strong is the daughter of Bernadine and Ezra Strong. She has five siblings: Colleen (22), Carlisa (20), Miguel (14), Eboni (7), and Ezra (5).
